

Continuing Professional Development Workshop Entitled: Working with Adult Survivors of Sexual Abuse Sunday 5 February 2012

INTRODUCTION

Working with adult survivors of child sexual abuse is challenging and highly sensitive. Child sexual abuse impacts on all aspects of the survivor's personhood, and in working with adults in recovery, there may be many challenges to the therapist. This workshop is designed for trainee and experienced counsellors who wish to explore the subject area in greater depth and explores the following areas:

WORKSHOP OUTLINE:

- Defining sexual abuse
- The grooming process
- The effects of child sexual abuse
- The recovery process
- Working through the stages of recovery
- Some useful tools for the work
- The big issues in working with sexual abuse
- Ethical issues to be aware of.

WHO SHOULD APPLY: Trainee and experienced therapists who wish to develop their knowledge and skills in this area.
